Charles Ferguson of Inside Job Will Discuss Prospects for Reforming Financial Sector

Milberg LLP will hold the 2nd Annual Institutional Investor Information Exchange (3iX), on Tuesday, July 26, 2011, at the Metropolitan Club, One East 60th St., in New York City. In The Road to Recovery: Navigating the Challenges of Compliance, Reform, Activism, and Recovery, renowned experts in the law, investment management, and journalism will share insights on the complexities of new and proposed government regulations, corporate governance, preserving shareholder value, and litigation. Topics will include:

- Reforming the Financial Sector - Charles Ferguson, director and producer of the Oscar-winning documentary Inside Job, will provide an overview of the financial crisis and discuss the impediments to, and prospects for, serious reform of the sell-side financial sector.
- Saving Pension Funds: "It's Worth the Fight" - Thomas J. Mackell, Jr., former Chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond and author of When the Good Pensions Go Away: Why America Needs a New Deal for Pension and Health Care Reform, will talk about the important role pension funds play in pushing for meaningful shareholder reforms and why recent policy changes in Wisconsin and Ohio could threaten that role.
- Corporate Governance Roundtable: Tackling Issues Facing Trustees and Fiduciaries - A panel of experts will address hot topics in corporate governance reform, from say-on-pay to the future of pension funds and their impact on meaningful proxy voting and director election.
- The New Regulatory Reality: Today's Battleground - Former government regulators and fund managers will discuss how new regulations, including the Dodd-Frank Act, will impact shareholders' rights, responsibilities, and ability to effect reform.
- Decoding Mixed Messages From the Courts - A distinguished panel of former judges and legal experts will discuss current and future trends in litigation impacting shareholders, including recent Supreme Court decisions.

Speakers will include: Hon. William T. Allen, Former Chief Judge, Delaware Court of Chancery; Todd Benjamin, former CNN Analyst; Amy Borrus, Deputy Director, Council of Institutional Investors; Hon.
