

Ariana J. Tadler, Partner at Milberg LLP, to Receive Women's Venture Fund's 2011 Highest Leaf Award

NEW YORK - May 5, 2011 - Milberg LLP is pleased to announce that Ariana J. Tadler, a partner and member of the firm's Executive Committee, has been named as a recipient of the Women's Venture Fund \(WVF\) 2011 Highest Leaf Award \(HLA\).

The HLA is given annually to women business executives who are leaders in their respective industries who influence the business world with innovative strategies and creative ideas. This year's awards will be presented at a breakfast ceremony on Wednesday, June 8th at the 3 West Club, at 3 West 51st Street in New York City.

"We congratulate Ariana for receiving this well-deserved award, and we are grateful for the leadership she has provided to our firm," said Sanford P. Dumain, Chair of Milberg's Executive Committee.

In addition to Ms. Tadler, the 2011 award recipients include:

Eve Felder, Managing Director, The Culinary Institute of America, Singapore
Robin Koval, President & Author, Kaplan Thaler Group
Dr. Linda F. Nathan, Founding Headmaster, Boston Arts Academy
Cathy O'Brien, Vice President, Global Finance Programme, Pearson PLC
Nina Vaca-Humrichouse, President & CEO, Pinnacle

HLA recipients exemplify the attributes that the Women's Venture Fund seeks to instill in its own aspiring entrepreneurial clients: creative thinking; great entrepreneurial spirit, management undaunted by uncertainty and failure; outstanding leadership qualities; and committing to mentoring others.

Those wishing to attend the awards ceremony or purchase a company table should contact the Women's Venture Fund by calling the office at 212-563-0499. The money raised from this breakfast event will go to fund training, loans, and mentoring for the Fund's clients.

About the Women's Venture Fund

The Women's Venture Fund is a non-profit organization that helps women of diverse backgrounds establish thriving businesses in urban communities. WVF offers training, small business loans, and a network of business advisors to help women reach their business goals.
